

Thanks to everyone who came out to the holiday block party. It was a fantastic event that drew a huge number of neighbors! There were rave reviews for the wonderland of baked treats, Otto Cantanti singers, toasty fire pit, and fun games for the kids. Missed this one? Good news, neighbors have already begun planning the spring block party.

Meanwhile...here's a quick heads-up on what's happening next with Woodland Park Avenue safety improvements:

Informational drop-in sessions -- staffed by neighbor volunteers:

Come learn more about the safety improvement project and get your questions answered by neighbors.

- Sunday, January 7, 2024, 10-11 a.m. - Friday Afternoon Tea Shop (Stone Way/43rd)
- Tuesday, January 9, 2024, 6-7 p.m. - Russell's Bar (Stone Way/41st)
- Saturday, January 13, 2024, 10-11 a.m. - Sea Wolf Bakery (Stone Way/36th)

Community meeting

An SDOT rep will present information and answer questions about the planned safety improvements on Woodland Park Ave. between 42nd and 43rd.

- Saturday, January 20, 10-11 a.m. - Wallingford Library meeting room (1501 N. 45th Street, Seattle, WA 98103). Muffins and beverages will be served. We highly encourage anyone planning to attend to watch the video below so you can have a general understanding of how traffic calming works.
- See the attached flyer \(also below\)

If you don't have time to attend any of the above events, you can still learn more:

Learn more about improving street safety on Woodland Park Ave. N.

- Fact sheet: Friends of Woodland Park Ave. N.
- Website: Friends of Woodland Park Ave. N. - Seattle Parks Foundation.
- Video: "Stop Speeders in Your Neighborhood" (Think you know how to slow traffic? Watch this video to see if you are correct. The video does an excellent job of illustrating what works and doesn't work in terms of street calming. Thank you to Mark [REDACTED] who found this video about five years ago. We are still sharing it because it is AWESOME.)